PERMIT EXPIRATION

This permit expires and becomes null and void if the building or work authorized by the permit is not commenced within 180 days from the date of the permit. The permit also expires if the building or work authorized is suspended or abandoned at any time after the work is commenced for a period of 180 days.

The expiration period may be extended by:

- 1) An inspection within the initial 180 days or
- 2) By written request by the permittee showing that circumstances beyond the control of the permittee have prevented action from being taken. The request must be approved by the Building Official.

The permit will remain valid if the following is documented:

- 3) An inspection conducted by a Humboldt County Building Inspector showing progress no less than every 180 days.

No permit shall be extended more than once. In order to renew action on a permit after expiration, the permittee shall pay a new full permit fee.
