Guide Notice

This guide was developed in an effort to provide answers to questions frequently asked of the Humboldt County Office of Elections concerning filling vacancies in local offices. It is for general information only and does not have the force and effect of law, regulation or rule. In case of conflict, the law, regulation or rule will apply. Persons using this guide must bear full responsibility to make their own determinations as to all legal standards and duties. For more information on vacancies in city offices, please contact your City Clerk.

Vacancies – Definition

An office becomes vacant on the happening of any of the following events before the expiration of the term:

- a) The death of the incumbent.
- b) An adjudication pursuant to a quo warranto proceeding declaring that the incumbent is physically or mentally incapacitated due to disease, illness, or accident and that there is reasonable cause to believe that the incumbent will not be able to perform the duties of their office for the remainder of their term. This subdivision shall not apply to offices created by the California Constitution nor to federal or state legislators.
- c) Their resignation.
- d) Their removal from office.
- e) Their ceasing to be an inhabitant of the state, or if the office be local and one for which local residence is required by law, of the district, county, or city for which the officer was chosen or appointed, or within which the duties of their office are required to be discharged.
- f) Their absence from the state without the permission required by law beyond the period allowed by law.
- g) Their ceasing to discharge the duties of their office for the period of three consecutive months, except when prevented by sickness, or when absent from the state with the permission required by law.
- h) Their conviction of a felony or of any offense involving a violation of their official duties. An officer shall be deemed to have been convicted under this subdivision when trial court judgment is entered. For the purposes of this subdivision, "trial court judgment" means a judgment by the trial court either sentencing the officer or otherwise upholding and implementing the plea, verdict, or finding.
- i) Their refusal or neglect to file their required oath or bond within the time prescribed.
- j) The decision of a competent tribunal declaring void their election or appointment.
- k) The making of an order vacating their office or declaring the office vacant when the officer fails to furnish an additional or supplemental bond.
- l) Their commitment to a hospital or sanitarium by a court of competent jurisdiction as a drug addict, dipsomaniac, inebriate, or stimulant addict; but in that event the office shall not be deemed vacant until the order of commitment has become final.

Government Code §1770 4

Vacancies in County Offices

Member, Board of Supervisors (General Law)

Whenever a vacancy occurs in a board of supervisors, the Governor shall fill the vacancy. The appointee shall hold office until the election and qualification of their successor.

Government Code §25060

The election of a supervisor to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be held at the next general election, unless the term expires on the first Monday after January 1st succeeding the election.

Government Code §25061

When a vacancy occurs from the failure of the person elected to file their oath or bond as provided by law, and the person elected is appointed to fill the vacancy, he or she shall hold office for the unexpired term.

Government Code §25062

Elected County Offices

- Assessor
- Auditor/Controller
- County Clerk/Recorder/Registrar
- District Attorney
- Sheriff/Coroner
- Tax Collector/Treasurer

The board of supervisors shall fill a vacancy in the offices listed above by appointment. The appointee shall hold office for the unexpired term or until the first Monday after January 1st succeeding the next general election.

Government Code §25304

If on the first Monday after January 1st following a general election the person elected to an elective county office has resigned or died, the board of supervisors shall provide that the office which was made vacant shall be filled at the next regularly scheduled election. The board of supervisors may appoint a person to temporarily carry out the duties of any office to be filled by such an election and that person shall serve until the results of the election are declared.

The person elected shall serve for the remainder of the term that began on the first Monday after January 1st immediately preceding the election.

Government Code §25304.5

County Superintendent of Schools

The county board of education may fill by appointment any vacancy that occurs during the term of office of the county superintendent of schools. In any county in which the superintendent is elected, the appointee shall hold office until the office is filled by election at the next gubernatorial election.

Government Code §25304 5

Terms of County Offices

County offices are up for election every four years at the Gubernatorial Primary and General Elections.

While the law for filling vacancies in county offices does not specifically call for a primary and run-off election should no candidate receive more than 50% of the vote, the decision in past vacancies has been to conduct the vacancy election as we would a regular election with a primary and general run-off election if needed as indicated by Elections Code §8000 and 8140.

A regularly scheduled election for the county is held in spring or summer (Primary) and November (General) of even-numbered years. 6

Vacancies on School District Governing Boards

What Causes a Vacancy

Vacancies on school district governing boards or community college district boards are caused by any of the events specified in Section 1770 of the Government Code (see Vacancies – Definition), or by a failure to elect. A vacancy resulting from resignation occurs when the written resignation is filed with the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district. A deferred effective date not to exceed 60 days may be specified by the incumbent, in which case, the resignation becomes effective on that date. Upon being filed with the county superintendent of schools, the written resignation is irrevocable.

Education Code §5090, 5091(a)

When any vacancy exists on the county board of education of any county on or after December 1, 1978, the vacancy shall be filled in the manner prescribed in Article 3 (commencing with Section 5090) of Chapter 1 of Part 4.

Education Code §1008

Action Required by the Governing Board

Whenever a vacancy occurs, the school district or community college district governing board has one of two options available to it. Either of these two options must be exercised within 60 days of the date a vacancy occurs or the date a deferred resignation is filed with the county superintendent of schools:

1. Immediately call an election to fill the vacancy; or
2. Make a provisional appointment pursuant to §5091 of the Education Code.

In the event that a governing board fails to make a provisional appointment or order an election within the prescribed 60-day period as required by this section, the county superintendent of schools shall call an election to fill the vacancy.

Education Code §5091(a)

Although not required by law, as a matter of practice, a copy of the resignation, and copies of any notices, appointments, resolutions calling election, etc. should be sent to the Humboldt County Office of Elections as soon as possible.

Election Ordered

When an election is ordered, it shall be held on the next regular election date not less than 130 days after the order of the election.

Established election dates in Elections Code §1000 are:

- a) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each even-numbered year that is evenly divisible by four.
- b) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each odd-numbered year.
- (c) The second Tuesday of April in each even-numbered year.
- (d) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in June in each even-numbered year that is not evenly divisible by four.
- (e) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each year.

Vacancy elections shall be conducted in as nearly the same manner as practicable as other governing board member elections. 7

Provisional Appointment

If the governing board makes a provisional appointment, the appointee is immediately conferred with all powers and duties of a governing board member.

Education Code §5091(d)

Public Notice

Within 10 days of making the provisional appointment to fill a vacancy the school district governing board must:

1. Post a notice described below (See Attachment A for sample notice) in at least three public places in the district; and
2. Publish the notice at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published within the district (Gov. Code §6061). If there is no newspaper of general circulation published in the district, notice need not be published.

Education Code §5092

A copy of the notice should be sent to the Humboldt County Office of Elections.

Contents of Public Notice

The notice to be posted and published must state the following:

1. The fact of the vacancy or resignation and the date of the occurrence of the vacancy or the date of the filing of, and the effective date of, the resignation, and
2. The full name of the provisional appointee to the board and the date of his/her appointment, and
3. A statement that unless a petition calling for a special election, containing a sufficient number of signatures, is filed in the office of county superintendent of schools within 30 days of the date of the provisional appointment, it shall become an effective appointment.

Education Code §5092

Petition Calling for a Special Election

If a provisional appointment is made within the 60-day period, the registered voters of the district may, within 30 days from the date of the appointment, petition for the conduct of a special election to fill the vacancy. (See Attachment B for sample petition)

Signature Requirements: A petition shall be deemed to bear a sufficient number of signatures if signed by whichever means below results in the greater number of registered voters:

- 1 ½ percent of the number of registered voters of the district at the time of the last regular election for governing board members, or 25 registered voters
- However, in districts with registered voters of less than 2,000 persons, a petition shall be deemed to bear a sufficient number of signatures if signed by at least 5 percent of the number of registered voters of the district at the time of the last regular election for governing board members.

Education Code §5091 (c) 8

Petition Requirements

Whenever a petition calling for a special election is circulated, the petition shall meet all of the following requirements:

- A. The petition shall contain the estimate of the elections official of the cost of conducting the special election.
- B. The name and residence address of at least one, but not more than five, of the proponents of the petition shall appear on the petition, each of which proponents shall be a registered voter of the school district or community college district, as applicable.
- C. None of the text or other language of the petition shall appear in less than six-point type.
- D. The petition shall be prepared and circulated in conformity with Sections 100 and 104 of
- E. the Elections Code.

Education Code §5091 (f)

Who Can Sign Petition

Only a person who is an eligible registered voter at the time of signing the petition or paper is entitled to sign it. Each signer shall at the time of signing the petition or paper personally affix their signature, printed name, and place of residence, giving street and number, and if no street or number exists, then a designation of the place of residence which will enable the location to be readily ascertained. A space at least one inch wide shall be left blank after each name for the use of the elections official in verifying the petition or paper. The part of a petition for the signatures, printed names, and residence addresses and for the blank spaces for verification purposes shall be numbered consecutively commencing with the number one and continuing through the number of signature spaces allotted to each section. (See Attachment B for sample petition)

Elections Code §100

Petition Circulator

Each section of the petition or paper shall have attached to it a declaration signed by the circulator of the petition or paper, setting forth, in the circulator's own hand, the following:

- 1. The printed name of the circulator.
- 2. The residence address of the circulator, giving street and number, or if no street or number exists, adequate designation of residence so that the location may be readily ascertained.
- 3. The dates between which all the signatures to the petition or paper were obtained.

Each declaration submitted pursuant to this section shall also set forth the following:

- 1. That the circulator circulated that section and witnessed the appended signatures being written.
- 2. That according to the best information and belief of the circulator, each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be.
- 3. That the circulator is 18 years of age or older.

The circulator shall certify to the content of the declaration as to its truth and correctness, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California, with the signature of their name. The circulator shall state the date and the place of execution on the declaration immediately preceding their signature.

Elections Code §104 9

Filing the Petition

The petition must be filed with the county superintendent of schools within the 30-day period following the making of the provisional appointment.

The county superintendent of schools then has 30 days to verify the signatures. (Since there is no mention of excluding weekend days and holidays, the 30-day reference is 30 calendar days.)

As a matter of practice, the superintendent forwards the petitions to the Humboldt County Office of Elections for checking signatures. The superintendent may decide if the petition is to be checked using a random sampling in accordance with Elections Code §9115 or to check 100 percent of the signatures. A certificate of the results of the petition checking will be forwarded to the county superintendent of schools.

If the petition is determined to be legally sufficient by the county superintendent of schools, the provisional appointment is terminated, and the county superintendent of schools shall call a special election to be conducted no later than the 130th day after the determination. However, if a regular election date, as defined in Section 1000 of the Elections Code, occurs between the 130th day and the 150th day following the determination, the county superintendent of schools may call the special election to be conducted on the regular election date.

If any of the legal requirements are not met as to any petition calling for a special election, the county superintendent of schools shall not verify the signatures, nor shall any further action be taken with respect to the petition.

No person shall permit the list of names on petitions prescribed by this section to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the petition for the purpose of holding an election pursuant to this section.

The petition filed with the county superintendent of schools is not a public record and may not be open to public inspection. The proponents, however, may have access to the petition if it is found to be insufficient.

Education Code §5091

Term of Office

A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next regularly scheduled election for district governing board members, whereupon an election shall be held to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

A person elected at an election to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term.

Education Code §5091

A person elected at a regular biennial governing board member election shall hold office for a term of four years commencing on the second Friday in December following their election in November.

Education Code §5017 10

Conditions for No Election or Appointment

- a. There shall be no special election or appointment to fill a vacancy on a governing board if the vacancy occurs within four months of the end of the term of that position.
- b. Section 5091 shall not apply to a vacancy on a governing board if the vacancy occurs, or a resignation specifying a deferred effective date is filed with the county superintendent of schools, during the period between six months and 130 days prior to a regularly scheduled governing board election and the position is not scheduled to be filled at such election. In such a case, the position shall be filled at a special election for that position to be consolidated with the regular election. A person elected to fill a position under this subdivision shall take office at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the governing board following the certification of the election and shall serve only until the end of the term of the position which he or she was elected to fill.

- c. If a special election pursuant to Section 5091 could be consolidated with the next regular election for governing board members, and the vacant position is scheduled to be filled at such regular election, there shall be no special election.

Education Code §5093 11

Vacancies on Special District Boards

Action Required by the Governing Board

The district shall notify the county elections official of the vacancy no later than 15 days following either the date on which the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later.

The remaining district board members have 60 days immediately subsequent to either the date on which the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, to either fill the vacancy

1. By appointment, or
2. By calling a special election

Government Code §1780

Appointments to Fill Vacancies

If the Board decides to appoint someone to fill the vacancy, the board first must post a notice of the vacancy in three or more conspicuous places in the district at least 15 days before the appointment is made. (See Attachments C & D for application to serve on a board and sample notice)

The Board must notify the county elections of the appointment no later than 15 days after the appointment is made.

The person appointed shall hold office until the next general district election that is scheduled 130 or more days after the date the district board is notified of the vacancy, and thereafter until the person elected at that election to fill the vacancy has been qualified. The person elected to fill the vacancy shall fill the balance of the unexpired term. If the term of office is due to expire following the next general district election and that election is scheduled 130 or more days after the date the county elections official is notified of the vacancy, the person appointed to the vacancy shall fill the balance of the unexpired term of their predecessor.

Government Code §1780

Elections to Fill Vacancies

In lieu of making an appointment the remaining members of the board may within 60 days of the date the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, call an election to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be held on the next established election date that is 130 or more days after the date the district board calls the election.

Government Code §1780

Established election dates in Elections Code §1000 are:

- a) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each even-numbered year that is evenly divisible by four.
- b) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each odd-numbered year.
- c) The second Tuesday of April in each even-numbered year.
- d) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in June in each even-numbered year that is not evenly divisible by four.
- e) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each year. 12

If the District Board Fails to Act

If the vacancy is not filled by the district board by either making an appointment or calling a special election within 60 days of the date the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, the following shall occur.

Within the next 30 days, the city council of the city in which the district is wholly located, or if the district is not wholly located within a city, the board of supervisors of the county representing the larger portion of the district area in which the election to fill the vacancy will be held, may fill the vacancy by appointment or may order the district to call an election to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be held on the next established election date (see previous list) that is 130 or more days after the date the city council or board of supervisors calls the election.

Government Code §1780

If the District Board Lacks a Quorum to Act Within 60 Days

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if the number of remaining members of the district board falls below a quorum, then at the request of the district secretary or a remaining member of the district board, the appropriate board of supervisors or the city council shall promptly appoint a person to fill the vacancy, or may call an election to fill the vacancy.

The board of supervisors or the city council shall only fill enough vacancies by appointment or by election to provide the district board with a quorum.

If the vacancy occurs in the first half of a term of office and at least 130 days prior to the next general district election, the person appointed to fill the vacancy shall hold the office until the next general district election that is scheduled 130 or more days after the date the district board is notified of the vacancy, and thereafter until the person who is elected at that election to fill the vacancy has been qualified. The person elected to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired balance of the term of office.

Government Code §1780

If the City Council or Board of Supervisors Fails to Act

If within 90 days of the date the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, no action has been taken by any governing body to fill the vacancy by appointment or by calling for a special election, the district board shall call an election to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be held on the next established election (see previous list) that is 130 or more days after the date the district board calls the election.

Government Code §1780

Term of Office

A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next general district election that is scheduled 130 or more days after the date the county elections official is notified of the vacancy and thereafter until the person elected at that election to fill the vacancy has been qualified to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

A person elected at an election to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Government Code §1780

A person elected at a regular board member election or appointed in-lieu of election takes office on the first Friday in December following their election in November and shall serve for four years.

Elections Code §10554, 10507 13

Other Districts not covered by Government Code §1780

Government Code §1781 specifically exempts certain districts from its provisions to fill vacancies in §1780. The Education Code governs school districts. The Public Utility Code governs municipal utility districts and is detailed below.

Municipal Utility Districts organized pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 11501) of the Public Utilities Code follow §11865 in the Public Utility Code to fill vacancies on their board.

The remaining board members may fill the vacancy by appointment until the next district general election that is scheduled 90 or more days after the effective date of the vacancy.

The appointment shall be made within a period of 60 days immediately subsequent to the effective date of such vacancy. A notice of such vacancy shall be posted in three or more conspicuous places in the district at least 15 days before the appointment is made.

In lieu of making an appointment, the remaining members of the board may within 60 days of the vacancy call a special election to fill the vacancy. The person elected at such special election shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which the vacancy occurred.

If the vacancy is not filled by appointment as provided above, or if the board has not called for an election within 60 days of the vacancy, the board of supervisors of the county representing the larger portion of the district area in which the election to fill the vacancy will be held may fill the vacancy by appointment within 90 days of the effective date of the vacancy or may order the district to call a special election to fill the vacancy.

If within 90 days of the effective date of the vacancy, the remaining members of the board or the appropriate board of supervisors have not filled the vacancy by appointment and no election has been called for, the district shall call a special election to fill the vacancy.

A person elected at an election to fill a position to which an appointment was made pursuant to this section shall take office immediately upon issuance of the certificate of election by the secretary of the district, after qualifying according to law, and shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which the vacancy occurs. 14

City Offices

Appointments to Fill Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs in an elective city office, the council shall, within 60 days from the commencement of the vacancy, either fill the vacancy by appointment or call a special election to fill the vacancy. The special election shall be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days from the call of the special election. A person appointed or elected to fill a vacancy holds office for the unexpired term of the former incumbent.

Government Code §36512, 34902

Cities May Require an Election

A city may enact an ordinance that does any of the following:

1. Requires that a special election be called immediately to fill every city council vacancy and the office of mayor designated pursuant to Section 34902. The ordinance shall provide that the special election shall be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days from the call of the special election.
2. Requires that a special election be held to fill a city council vacancy and the office of mayor designated pursuant to Section 34902 when petitions bearing a specified number of verified signatures are filed. The ordinance shall provide that the special election shall be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days from the filing of the petition. A governing body that has enacted such an ordinance may also call a special election pursuant to subdivision (b) without waiting for the filing of a petition.
3. Provides that a person appointed to fill a vacancy on the city council holds office only until the date of a special election which shall immediately be called to fill the remainder of the term. The special election may be held on the date of the next regularly established election or regularly scheduled municipal election to be held throughout the city not less than 114 days from the call of the special election.

Government Code §36512

Restriction to Appointing

An appointment shall not be made to fill a vacancy on a city council if the appointment would result in a majority of the members serving on the council having been appointed.

The city council may call an election to fill the vacancy, to be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days after the call.

If the city council does not call an election, the vacancy shall be filled at the next regularly established election date.

Government Code §36512 15

Federal, State & Judicial Offices

President of the United States

In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

See the U.S. Constitution, Amendment XXV for more provisions.

United States Senator

If a vacancy occurs in the representation of this state in the Senate of the United States, the Governor may appoint and commission an elector of this state who possesses the qualifications for the office to fill the vacancy until a person is elected at a statewide general election to hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term and is admitted to the vacated seat by the United States Senate.

The Governor shall issue a writ of election for a statewide general election to fill a vacancy.

If an election date would occur after the expiration of the term in which the vacancy occurred, the Governor shall consult with the Secretary of State as to whether it is practical to issue a writ of election to fill the vacancy before the expiration of the term. If the Governor determines, in the Governor's discretion, that it is practical, the Governor may issue a writ of election for special statewide primary and general elections to fill the vacancy.

The following apply whenever an election to fill a vacancy in the United States Senate is consolidated with a statewide election and appears on the same ballot as a regular election for the term of the Senate seat subsequent to the term in which the vacancy occurred:

The candidates for the election to fill the vacancy shall appear on the consolidated ballot immediately after the candidates for the regular election for the succeeding term.

Elections officials who provide voter information guides, sample ballots, and ballot materials shall include on those materials a notice that advises voters that the ballot includes elections for the succeeding term and for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacated Senate seat. The notice shall appear in boldface type and in a clearly legible font size. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the language for the notice.

Elections officials who provide ballots for a consolidated election pursuant to this section shall include on the ballot, in a box immediately above the spaces on the ballot for United States Senate elections, a notice that advises voters that the ballot includes elections for the succeeding term and for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacated Senate seat. The notice shall appear in a boldface type and a clearly legible font size. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the language for the notice.

Elections Code §10720

Congressional and Legislative Offices

Governor's Proclamation: The Governor shall call all statewide special elections by issuing a proclamation pursuant to Elections Code §12000. In the case of a vacancy in a congressional or legislative office the Governor shall issue a proclamation, within 14 calendar days of the occurrence of the vacancy, calling a special election to fill the vacancy. A copy of the proclamation shall be sent to the board of supervisors of every affected county.

Elections Code §10700 16

Vacancies Occurring After the Close of Nomination: When a vacancy occurs in a congressional office after the close of the nomination period in the final year of the term of office, the Governor may decline to issue an election proclamation at his discretion.

When a vacancy occurs in a legislative office after the close of the nomination period in the final year of the term of office, no special election shall be held.

Elections Code §10701

Time to Call Election: A special election to fill a vacancy in the office of Representative in Congress, State Senator, or Member of the Assembly shall be conducted on a Tuesday at least 126 days, but not more than 140 days, following the issuance of an election proclamation by the Governor pursuant to Section 1773 of the Government Code, except that the special election may be conducted within 200 days following the proclamation in order to consolidate the election or the primary election with an election occurring wholly or partially within the same territory in which the vacancy exists.

Except as provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 10730), a special election or a primary election may not be conducted on the day after a state holiday.

Elections Code §10703

A special primary election shall be held in the district in which the vacancy occurred on the 10th Tuesday preceding the day of the special general election at which the vacancy is to be filled if both of the following conditions apply:

- (1) The 10th Tuesday preceding the day of the special general election is an established election date pursuant to Section 1000.
- (2) A statewide or local election occurring wholly or partially within the same territory in which the vacancy exists is scheduled for the 10th Tuesday preceding the day of the special general election.

Nominations: Candidates at the primary election shall be nominated in the same manner as a regular election (Elections Code §8000, et. al.), except that nomination papers shall not be circulated more than 73 days before the primary election, shall be left with the county elections official for examination not less than 53 days before the primary election, and shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than 53 days before the primary election.

Elections Code §10704

Ballot Layout: All candidates shall be listed on one ballot. If any candidate receives a majority of all votes cast, he or she shall be declared elected, and no special general election shall be held. Or, if only one candidate qualifies to have their name printed on the special general election ballot, that candidate shall be declared elected, and no special general election shall be held.

Elections Code §10705 17

General, Run-Off Ballot:

If no candidate receives a majority of votes cast, the names of the candidates who receive the highest or second highest number of votes cast at the special primary election shall be placed on the special general election ballot. In the case of a tie vote, subdivision (b) of Section 8142 shall apply.

Elections Code §10706

Order of Contest on Ballot: Whenever a special general election, or a special primary election, to fill a vacancy in Congress or the State Legislature is consolidated with a statewide election, the candidates to fill the vacancy shall appear on the consolidated ballot immediately preceding the candidates for that same seat in Congress or the seat in the Legislature that most nearly encompasses the same geographical area at the statewide election, or the elections official at their option may print a separate and distinct ballot.

Elections Code §10707

Governor

The Lieutenant Governor shall become Governor when a vacancy occurs in the office of Governor.

The Lieutenant Governor shall act as Governor during the impeachment, absence from the State, or other temporary disability of the Governor or of a Governor-elect who fails to take office.

CA. Const., Article V, Section 10

Other State Constitutional Offices

Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, or Attorney General, or on the State Board of Equalization, the Governor shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority of the membership of the Senate and a majority of the membership of the Assembly and who shall hold office for the balance of the unexpired term.

In the event the nominee is neither confirmed nor refused confirmation by both the Senate and the Assembly within 90 days of the submission of the nomination, the nominee shall take office as if he or she had been confirmed by a majority of the Senate and Assembly; provided, that if such 90-day period ends during a recess of the Legislature, the period shall be extended until the sixth day following the day on which the Legislature reconvenes.

CA. Const., Article V, Section 5

Proposition 103, an initiative statute passed by voters in November 1988, established the office of the State Insurance Commissioner. While the Insurance Code §12900 provides how the person is elected, there are no provisions for filling a vacancy in this office. 18

Supreme and Appellate Court Justices

Within 30 days before August 16 preceding the expiration of the judge's term, a judge of the Supreme Court or a court of appeal may file a declaration of candidacy to succeed to the office presently held by the judge. If the declaration is not filed, the Governor before September 16 shall nominate a candidate. At the next general election, only the candidate so declared or nominated may appear on the ballot, which shall present the question whether the candidate shall be elected. The candidate shall be elected upon receiving a majority of the votes on the question. A candidate not elected may not be appointed to that court but later may be nominated and elected. The Governor shall fill vacancies in the Supreme and Appellate courts by appointment. An appointee holds office until the Monday after January 1 following the first general election at which the appointee had the right to become a candidate or until an elected judge qualifies. A nomination or appointment by the Governor is effective when confirmed by the Commission on Judicial Appointments.

Electors of a county, by majority of those voting and in a manner the Legislature shall provide, may make this system of selection applicable to judges of superior courts.

CA. Const., Article VI, Section 16(d)

Superior Court Judge

Terms of judges of superior courts are 6 years beginning the Monday after January 1 following their election. A vacancy shall be filled by election to a full term at the next general election after the second January 1 following the vacancy, but the Governor shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy temporarily until the elected judge's term begins.

Member, Party Central Committee/County Council

Democratic Party / Republican Party / American Independent Party

In the event of the appointment or election to a committee of an ineligible person, or whenever any member of the committee dies, resigns or becomes incapacitated to act, or removes from the jurisdiction of the committee, or ceases to be a member of this party, a vacancy exists which shall be filled by appointment by the committee in which the ineligibility or vacancy occurs.

A committee may remove any member, other than an ex officio member if:

- The member misses more than three consecutive regularly called meetings, unless their absence is caused by illness or temporary absence from the county on the date of the meeting or
- The member, during their term of membership affiliates with, or registers as a member of another party, who publicly advocates that the voters should not vote for the nominee of this party for any office, or who gives support or avows a preference for a candidate of another party or candidate who is opposed to a candidate nominated by this party.

The removal of residence by an elected or appointed member of a committee from the Assembly district or supervisor district from which he or she has been elected or appointed a member of that committee shall constitute their automatic resignation from the committee.

Elections Code §7212-7215, 7410-7413, 7657-7659

Peace and Freedom Party / Libertarian Party

At its first meeting on the second Tuesday in July following the presidential primary election and at subsequent meetings, a county central committee, in its sole discretion, may appoint any additional members to the county central committee as it may desire.

Any member of a committee who misses more than three consecutive regularly scheduled meetings may be removed by a vote of the committee concerned, unless the absence of the member is caused by illness or temporary absence from the county on the date of the meeting.

The removal of residence by an elected or appointed member of a county central committee from the county from which the member was elected shall constitute the member's automatic resignation from the committee.

A committee may remove any elected or appointed member, who during the term of membership, affiliates with or registers as a member of another political party, publicly advocates that the voters should not vote for the nominee of the party for any office, publicly gives support to or avows a preference for a candidate of another party or candidate who is opposed to a candidate nominated by this party or has violated the bylaws or constitution of the committee.

Elections Code §7850, 7853-7855

Green Party

In 1992, the Green Party became a qualified political party in California and was authorized to participate in the primary elections. The party, at that time, agreed to adopt the Peace and Freedom Party Code Sections 7700 – 7999 pending drafting of new code sections governing the Green Party. Therefore, vacancies would be filled by appointment by the remaining members. 20
